

THE SUNDAY TIMES

SECTION 6 | FEBRUARY 1, 2009

Home

BACK IN THE BLACK

Murano Targi/Getty

INNER VISION

designcounsel@sunday-times.co.uk

Emily Leppenwell seeks out the best winter buys for your home

The crystal craze
was £3,276, now £2,883

The Murano 8 glass chandelier, finished with Swarovski crystal droplets, is the perfect centrepiece for an opulent interior. Pictured in Amethyst. It's an impressive 90cm wide. 0845 372 0007, www.lightingweb.co.uk

In line £44.50
per square metre

Alternative Flooring earns its stripes with two new ranges. Rock'n'Roll has rhythmic lines in six vibrant colours; Fine Lines comes in Wool, Blacstripe (left, in Sable/Bone), Cord and Pinstripe, with a neutral palette. 01264 335111; www.alternativeflooring.com

All about Eva from £18

Add a touch of new-folk chic to your bedroom with the beautiful hand-embroidered florals of Also Home's Eva linen. A pillowcase costs £18, a double duvet cover £80. 0844 870 0165, www.alsohome.com

Old flame from £21.50

The Hobart candlestick was a staple accessory in the 1960s, and the classic design is now back in small-scale production courtesy of Robert Welch Designs. It is made of cast iron, with a black finish, and is available in two sizes. 01386 840522; www.robertwelch.com

